RG104 E-1 Box 169

Norristown Pa
March 9th 1894

To Superintendent of Mint

I have a gold coin which I would like to know if this is any ~~value~~ value I will give you the discription of ith

Obverse is just the same as a ten dollar eagle. Liberty head wearing a cap, facing right and 13 stars above liberty beneath 1805.

Reverse is and eagle displayed wings with a united States

RG104 E-1 Box 169

shield upon its breast and a small bundle of arrows in the left claw (containing about 8)
in the right claw an olive branch in the eagles mouth is a scroll
E Pluribus Unum and a round the head is 13 stars, above is a curved line of clouds extending from wing to wing around it is United States of America
This is as near as I can discribe
it to you I inclose a stamp
for return mail

From Mrs P. W. Yost
16 E Marshall St
Norristown Montg Co.
Pa

RECEIVED
MAR 11 1891
U. S. SMST. PHILA.

RG104 E-1 Box 169

Homestown. Pa.

March 9. 1891

Mrs P. H. Yost-

Asks value of Coin of 1805.

Recd

March 11. 1891

NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 169

Norristown, Pa.
March 9, 1891

To Superintendent of Mint

I have a gold coin which I would to know if this of any value I will give you the description of it.

Obverse is just the same as a ten dollar eagle. Liberty head wearing a cap, facing right and 13 stars above liberty beneath 1805.

Reverse is and eagle displayed wings with a United States shield upon its breast and a small bundle of arrows in the left claw (containing about 8) in the right claw an olive branch in the eagle's mouth is a scroll E Pluribus Unum and around the head is 13 stars, above is a curved line of clouds extending from wing to wing around it is United States of America.

This is as near as I can describe it to you I enclose a stamp for return mail.

From
Mrs. P.W. Yost
16 E. Marshall St.
Norristown Montg. Co.
Pa.